SUPPORTING INFORMATION

Submitted material comprises existing and proposed plans, location and site plan, street scene drawings, consultation responses and a neighbour representation. The proposed drawing identifies the bungalow-to-dormer conversion, rear extension, roof alterations, enlarged driveway, scale bar, dimensions and neighbour-facing relationships.

The proposal is presented as a domestic roof-space conversion with a rear dormer set below the ridge, set in from the verges and contained within the main roof slope. The upper rear opening is shown with a flush Juliet guard only, with no external balcony platform.

DESIGN AND ROOF DETAILS

The submitted drawings note a retained main ridge height, retained front eaves line, matching roof tiles and matching facing materials. The rear dormer is shown as subordinate to the roof plane and set away from the roof edges.

The street scene drawing records the mixed residential character of the street, including bungalow and dormer-bungalow forms, so the scale of the roof alteration can be read in context.

AMENITY AND PARKING DETAILS

Side-facing rooflights are marked as obscure glazed and high-level where shown. The rear-facing upper opening is marked as a Juliet guard only with inward-opening doors and no projecting platform.

The frontage drawing shows two off-street parking spaces on permeable surfacing, a retained access position and vehicles standing clear of the public footway.
